Volunteer Opportunities

A brand new year is a great time to start volunteering with NCTA! The Administration Division will be revamping the volunteer process early this year, but in the meantime, if you'd like to volunteer, your time and expertise are most appreciated.

We have a number of committees/groups that could benefit from additional members. We'll also need volunteers for a number of tasks at the 2025 conference in Buffalo, NY.

New Year - New Conflict of Interest Form!

If you currently volunteer with NCTA and wish to continue, or if you are new to NCTA and wish to volunteer, a Conflict of Interest Form must be completed to assure compliance with our policies and standards. There's no need to find a pen. You can log into your NCTA Member Account and complete the form online: <https://ncta.memberclicks.net/ncta-conflict-of-interest-form>.

We couldn't do all the things we do each year without our growing list of dedicated volunteers. Please submit your COI form before February 28th to be acknowledged as a volunteer at the NCTA Conference in Buffalo!"

Program Proposals OPEN - Submit by January 31!

The NCTA conference is successful because of the contributions of those willing to share their knowledge and expertise by presenting a session.

The program committee is excited to see your ideas!

NCTA Grants Application - Opens January 6

The National College Testing Association (NCTA) is pleased to announce that applications for the 2025-2026 grant year will open on January 6, 2025, and close on March 14, 2025.

NCTA offers a variety of grants to support initiatives that advance the field of testing and assessment. Whether you're launching a new project, conducting research, or seeking support for professional development, an NCTA grant can help bring your vision to life.

We encourage all members to explore these opportunities on the NCTA Grants Program webpage at <https://www.ncta-testing.org/grants-program>. Now is the perfect time to start planning your submission!

For questions, email us at grants@ncta-testing.org. We look forward to seeing your innovative ideas!

Register for the Special Interest Groups (SIGs) Coffee Date

You are invited to a 'Coffee Date' with the leaders of the NCTA Special Interest Groups (SIGs).

The SIG groups focus on gathering and sharing information and resources on specific topics which include Emergency Planning, Universal Access and Online Learning.

Date: February 13th, 2025

Time: 3:00 - 4:00 pm EST

REGISTER to attend

This is an opportunity to tell us what you need help with, are interested in, and want more assistance with! It's also a great way to get more involved with the SIG groups.

If you have questions, please email the SIG groups via partnerships@ncta-testing.org.
